Title: Quantum groups in nature

Speaker: Jules Martel (Univ. Paris-Cergy)

Abstract: Where nature is twisted homologies of configuration spaces of points decorated by simple roots, and quantum groups are symmetrizable quantum Kac–Moody algebras. They constitute algebraic structures extensively used in TQFT constructions, quantum invariants etc. We thus give them an initial topological flavour.